

North America

By: _____

North America is the _____ continent.

The equator run through the _____ of North America.

Write interesting facts about North America:

Write about animals that live in North America:

Write about the countries and languages from North America:

What would you go see if you went to North America? Why?
